

ENDOCYTE, INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Adopted August 12, 2010 and effective as of the closing of the Company's initial public offering

As amended on April 18, 2013 and February 7, 2018

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Endocyte, Inc. (the “Company”) shall be to review and make recommendations to the Board on matters concerning corporate governance; Board composition; identification, evaluation and nomination of director candidates; Board committees; and conflicts of interest.

In furtherance of these purposes, the Committee will undertake those specific duties and responsibilities listed below and such other duties as the Board may from time to time prescribe.

MEMBERSHIP

The Committee members shall be appointed by, and shall serve at the discretion of, the Board. The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members of the Board. The Board may designate one member of the Committee as its Chair. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate. Members of the Committee shall meet the independent director definition of Rule 5605(a)(2) of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. Listed Company Manual (the “Nasdaq Rules”). Appointment to the Committee shall not signify that the appointee has a higher degree of liability than other members of the Board.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The responsibilities and duties of the Committee shall include:

Corporate Governance Generally

- Reviewing annually the principles of corporate governance approved by the Board to ensure that they remain relevant and are being complied with, recommending changes to the Board as necessary;
- Reviewing proposed changes to the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws and making recommendations to the Board;
- Determining the manner in which stockholders may send communications to the Board (as a whole or individually), as well as the process by which stockholder communications will be relayed to the Board and what the Board’s response, if any, should be;
- Reviewing periodically the succession planning for the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers, reporting its findings and recommendations to the Board, and working with the Board in evaluating potential successors to these executive management positions;

- Conferring with the Company's Chief Executive Officer to encourage management's employee development programs;
- Reviewing governance-related stockholder proposals and recommending Board responses;
- Overseeing compliance by the Board and its committees with applicable laws and regulations, including those promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Rules;
- Reviewing its own charter and processes on an annual basis;

Board Composition, Evaluation and Nominating Activities

- Overseeing the Board evaluation process, including establishing an annual process for the Board and each Board committee to conduct an assessment of its performance during the prior year, and evaluating the performance of Board members eligible for re-election;
- Reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding the composition and size of the Board and determine the relevant criteria (including any minimum qualifications) for Board membership including issues of character, integrity, judgment, diversity, age, independence, skills, education, expertise, business acumen, business experience, length of service, understanding of the Company's business, other commitments and the like;
- Establishing procedures for the submission of candidates for election to the Board (including recommendations by stockholders of the Company);
- Establishing procedures for identifying and evaluating nominees for Director;
- Reviewing and recommending candidates for election to the Board at the annual meeting of stockholders in compliance with the Company's policies and procedures for consideration of Board candidates;
- Identifying, considering and recommending candidates to fill new positions or vacancies on the Board; in performing these duties, the Committee shall have the authority, at the Company's expense, to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify Board candidates and shall have authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms;
- Reviewing the disclosure included in the Company's proxy statement regarding the Company's nomination process;
- Making recommendations for continuing education of Board members;
- Monitoring the independence of the directors to ensure that a majority of the members of the Board are independent and that all of the members of each Board committee are independent and satisfy the other criteria set forth in that committee's respective charter;

Board Committees

- Periodically reviewing the composition of each Board committee and making recommendations to the Board for the creation or dissolution of Board committees;
- Recommending to the Board persons to be members and chairs of the various Board committees;

Conflicts of Interest

- Reviewing and approving the Company's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct; and
- Reviewing actual and potential conflicts of interest of Board members and corporate officers, other than related party transactions reviewed by the Audit Committee, and approving or prohibiting any involvement of such persons in matters that may involve a conflict of interest or taking of a corporate opportunity.

In performing its duties, the Committee shall have the authority, at the Company's expense, to retain, hire, and obtain advice, reports or opinions from internal or external legal counsel and expert advisors.

MEETINGS

As the Chair of the Committee deems advisable, the Committee shall meet as often as may be necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may meet either in person or telephonically, and at such times and places as the Committee determines. The Committee may establish its own meeting schedule, which it will provide to the Board. The Committee may invite to its meetings other Board members, Company management and such other persons as the Chair of the Committee deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall represent a quorum, and, if a quorum is present, any action approved by at least a majority of the members present shall represent the valid action of the Committee. Any actions taken by the Committee during any period in which one or more members fail for any reason to meet the membership requirements set forth above shall be nonetheless duly authorized actions of the Committee for all corporate purposes.

MINUTES

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, which will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

REPORTS

The Chair of the Committee shall make regular reports to the full Board on the actions and recommendations of the Committee.

COMPENSATION

Members of the Committee shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board in its sole discretion.
